

ELEVATING VOICES – A PATTISON DIVERSITY & INCLUSION MEDIA GRANT

PATTISON Outdoor is a member of communities across Canada. From Victoria to St. John’s, our clients are often those with the means to amplify their voices, utilizing out-of-home advertising.

Canada is evolving. To celebrate that evolution, PATTISON Outdoor, through the direction and management of our Diversity and Inclusion Committee, is excited to launch the third year of our grant program to offer media space to marginalized voices and those promoting a more inclusive Canada. By providing a platform to those frequently excluded from mainstream media, PATTISON aims to support the vast diversity our Country has to offer.

PATTISON Outdoor is committed to 5 key guiding principles for the Grant application process:

Confidentiality – Proposal information will remain private, on a need-to-know basis.

Fairness – All applicants will be scored fairly through a standardized review process.

Excellence – Quality and impact is our fund’s mission and we commit to upholding rigorous standards for campaign success and delivery.

Efficiency – Proposals will be evaluated swiftly to ensure funds are disbursed in timely matter.

Transparency – Proposal decisions will be made on clearly defined guidelines and communicated to applicants.

How it works

The program provides media credits to not-for-profit and charitable organizations that focus on ethno-cultural groups; First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples; 2SLGBTQ+; women’s equality; those with disabilities; and any other group focused on and for projects that promote diversity, equity and inclusion. The goal is to find groups without a voice, and bring their messages to the mainstream by employing Out-of-Home media.

PATTISON Outdoor will issue a total of seven media grants; up to six to regional groups across the country and one to a national partner. The grant fund consists of up to $1,000,000 in overall media value, with up to $100,000 in media value granted to each regional recipient, and up to $400,000 to a national recipient. Priority in the selection process will be given to the regional grants for sufficient geographical representation within Canada where PATTISON has media. The above amounts do not include production costs.

Examples of messaging include, but are not limited to:

- Educational messaging/programs for minority groups or for education of non-minority groups.
- Art/Culture promotion for or by underrepresented groups.
- Promotion of services to better support members of our community who traditionally have been marginalized. Cultural and recreational programming, including programming for vulnerable populations such as at-risk children and youth.

- Supporting pilot or existing initiatives with a potential for sustainability (for multiple years or months).
- Social Justice messaging promoting positive societal change in the community.
- Groups that address issues that affect people of various national origin, language, race, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, and family structures.
